

The Willsallen Family & Aloburn Poll Merinos

An Invitation

“to examine a self-replacing ewe flock for wool & prime lamb production, with the improved productivity & value, gained with an early maturing merino”

on

Friday 9th September 2011 at 10.00am – 12.00 noon

at “Widgeongully” Widgeongully Road, Jugiong N.S.W.

(Directions page 2)

Guest speaker: Dr Bruce Farquharson, B.V.Sc., Ph.D., Dip. Ag.Econ., F.A.C.V.Sc.

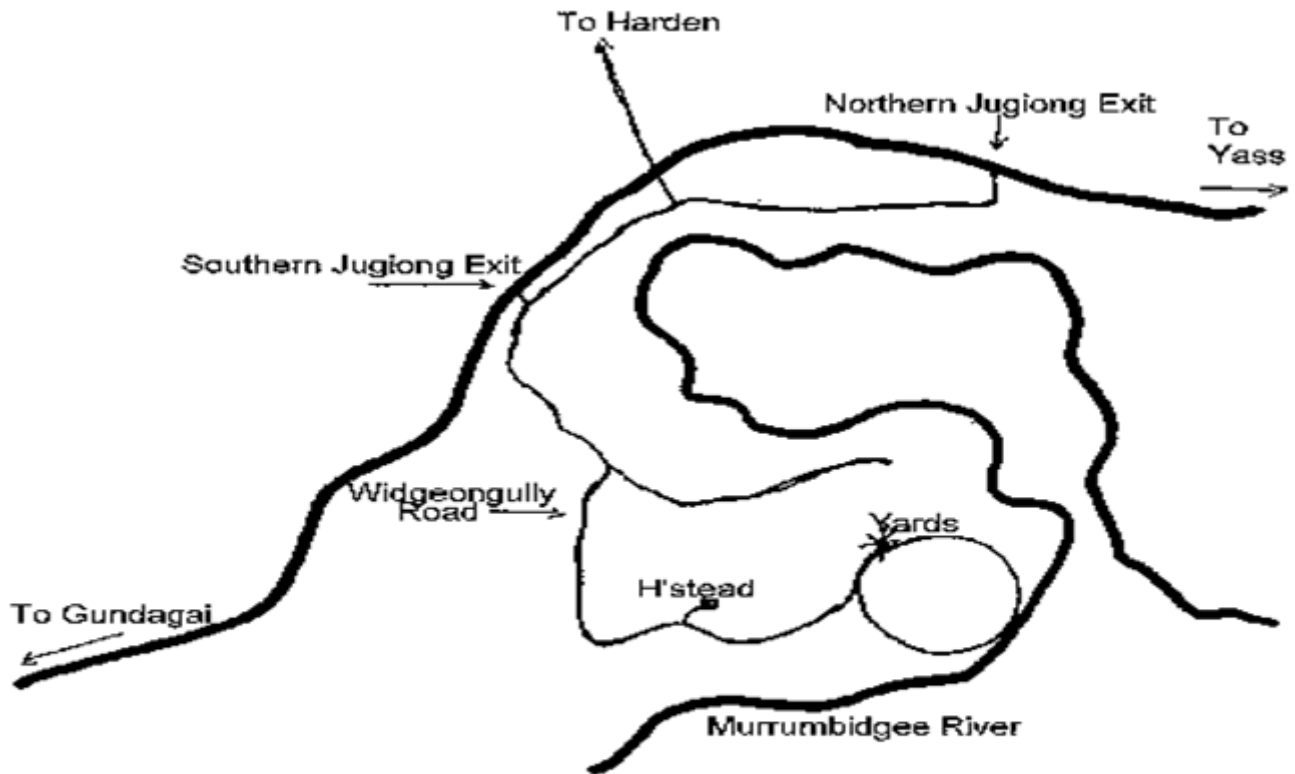

Veterinary Sheep Specialist

On display

- working rams
- One year old ewes
- F1 ewes with 2nd cross weaned lambs
- cull ewes with cross bred lambs at foot

Directions to – “Widgeongully” Widgeongully Road, Jugiong N.S.W.

The Widgeongully/Wirrilla Road turn off is just beyond the southern exit and from the first fork (right going to "Widgeongully") there will be red arrows showing the way down to the sheep yards on the river flats.